

Examen de Tercero de Secundaria

INGLÉS - SEGUNDO TRIMESTRE

1. Multiple Choice: Select the correct option to complete the sentence: "To write a brief report on a historical event, we need to _____." a) guess the riddles b) interpret the descriptions c) search and select relevant information

2. Fill in the Blanks: "A history report helps us to understand the _____ of historical events."

3. Matching: Match the words with their correct meanings: a) report b) historical events c) content With: X) the things that are included in a story or in a document Y) a document that gives detailed information about something Z) something that happened in the past

4. True or False: Writing a report on a historical event requires understanding its content.

5. Open Ended Question: Why is it important to review and edit reports before submitting them?

6. Multiple Choice: When we formulate hypotheses about past events, we are trying to _____. a) solve enigmas b) describe unexpected situations c) listen to oral testimonies

7. Fill in the Blanks: "Guessing and formulating hypotheses about _____ events can be an exciting exercise."

8. Matching: Match the words with their correct meanings: a) enigma b) hypotheses c) past events With: X) a supposition made on the basis of limited evidence as a starting point for further investigation Y)

something that happened before the present time Z) a person or thing that is mysterious or difficult to understand

9. True or False: Formulating hypotheses can help to explain enigmatic past events.

10. Open Ended Question: What is the role of guessing in understanding past events?

11. Multiple Choice: In an oral exchange, it is important to interpret _____. a) the general sense and main ideas b) the enigmas c) the past events

12. Fill in the Blanks: "Describing unexpected _____ can be part of a conversation or an oral testimony."

13. Matching: Match the words with their correct meanings: a) oral testimony b) unexpected situations c) interpret With: X) understand and explain the meaning of Y) a formal statement, made by someone who promises they are telling the truth, about something they saw or experienced Z) situations or events that you did not expect to happen

14. True or False: Listening to descriptions of unexpected situations can help us understand others better.

15. Open Ended Question: Why is it important to interpret general sense, main ideas, and details in an oral exchange?

16. Multiple Choice: To write a brief report on a historical event, one must _____. a) select and review descriptions of the event b) guess the riddles c) describe unexpected events

17. Fill in the Blanks: "To understand the content of historical events, we must _____ and review descriptions."

18. Matching: Match the words with their correct meanings: a) review b) descriptions c) historical events With: X) something that happened in the past Y) a spoken or written account of a person, object, or event Z) a formal assessment or examination of something with the possibility or intention of instituting change if necessary

19. True or False: Writing brief reports is an effective way to learn about history.

20. Open Ended Question: How can you describe enigmatic events from the past?

21. Multiple Choice: During a conversation, one might need to interpret and provide descriptions of _____. a) historical events b) unexpected situations c) past enigmas

22. Fill in the Blanks: "Listening to and evaluating descriptions of unexpected situations shared in an _____ exchange can be very enlightening."

23. Matching: Match the words with their correct meanings: a) oral exchange b) unexpected situations c) evaluate With: X) assess Y) a conversation between two or more people where information is exchanged Z) an unforeseen or unplanned event or circumstance

24. True or False: Describing unexpected events can be a challenging task.

25. Open Ended Question: How can listening to oral testimonies improve your communication skills?

26. Multiple Choice: To formulate hypotheses to guess riddles that explain past events, one should _____. a) choose a past event b) write a history report c) evaluate descriptions of unexpected situations

27. Fill in the Blanks: "Guessing and formulating hypotheses about _____ events can help understand and explain them better."

28. Matching: Match the words with their correct meanings: a) guess b) hypotheses c) past events With: X) an idea or theory that is not proven but that leads to further study or discussion Y) something that happened before the present time Z) to form an opinion or to make a decision about something without knowing all the facts

29. True or False: Guessing and formulating hypotheses are vital steps in understanding enigmatic past events.

30. Open Ended Question: Why is it important to share and discuss our hypotheses about past events?

This exam was made by experts in the field from the miexamende.com team.

Este examen fue realizado por expertos en la materia del equipo de miexamende.com.